

DAILY APPEAL

MEMPHIS.

TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 28, 1857.

For Governor,

ISHAM G. HARRIS,

OF SHREVEPORT.

DEATH OF HON. THOS. B. CARROLL.

Our whole community have been affected deeply by the sudden death of Hon. THOMAS

B. CARROLL, Mayor of the City, which melancholy event occurred at his residence on Hernando street, on Sunday evening at 10 mi-utes to 11 o'clock. The deceased, which termed so fatally to one, who had hitherto been considered in the most robust health, was inflamed by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

Magistrate by the hand of death, his chief

TENNESSEE INTELLIGENCE.

A correspondent of the Union and American, speaking of a paragraph originating with the New York Post, in which it was said that Mrs.

Park intended to spend the next winter in Washington, says:

"It has been a matter of surprise that, if our own papers should deem such articles worthy of republication, that they should have failed to mention the name of Mrs. Park, who has been copied into two of our papers from the New York Post. Mrs. Park has been in New York since the death of President Polk. She resides in Washington City. She has never been in London, nor out of the United States.

Nor has she been out of the State of Tennessee since the death of President Polk. She is her home for life."

A woman named Mrs. SPARKLING, committed suicide at Nashville, last Wednesday, by taking arsenic.

The residence of Mr. HENRY HART, about three miles from Nashville, was destroyed by fire on Thursday morning last.

The dwelling of Mr. GATCKY, in Shelbyville, was destroyed by fire last Tuesday.

A slave belonging to ANTHONY JOHNSON,

Esq., of Nashville, was mortally wounded, at that place, on Thursday, by a free negro named George Lewis. The murdered slave was a member of the Presbyterian Church of Clarksville. The Presbyterian Church of Clarksville has contributed nearly $500 towards the construction of the Metropolitan Church in the City of Washington.

HORRIBLE MURDER.—An extra from the

Sparta Times, dated the 21st, contains the following announcement:

"On the 19th of April, on the road leading from the City of Sparta to Johnson's, on Cumberland Mountain, Cumberland county, Tenn.,

about five miles from Sparta, there was a murder committed. The murdered man was about 35 or 40 years of age; tall, thin, with dark hair, and a high forehead. He was wearing a blue coat, a white shirt, and dark trousers. He was carrying a gun in his hand. He was killed by a free negro named George Lewis. The murdered man

was a member of the Presbyterian Church

of Clarksville. The Presbyterian Church

of Clarksville has contributed nearly $500

towards the construction of the Metropolitan

Church in the City of Washington.

HORRIBLE MURDER.—An extra from the

Sparta Times, dated the 21st, contains the following announcement:

"On the 19th of April, on the road leading

from the City of Sparta to Johnson's, on Cumberland Mountain, Cumberland county, Tenn.,

about five miles from Sparta, there was a

murder committed. The murdered man was

about 35 or 40 years of age; tall, thin, with

dark hair, and a high forehead. He was

wearing a blue coat, a white shirt, and

dark trousers. He was carrying a gun in

his hand. He was killed by a free negro

named George Lewis. The murdered man

was a member of the Presbyterian Church

of Clarksville. The Presbyterian Church

of Clarksville has contributed nearly $500

towards the construction of the Metropolitan

Church in the City of Washington.

HORRIBLE MURDER.—An extra from the

Sparta Times, dated the 21st, contains the following announcement:

"On the 19th of April, on the road leading

from the City of Sparta to Johnson's, on Cumberland Mountain, Cumberland county, Tenn.,

about five miles from Sparta, there was a

murder committed. The murdered man was

about 35 or 40 years of age; tall, thin, with

dark hair, and a high forehead. He was

wearing a blue coat, a white shirt, and

dark trousers. He was carrying a gun in

his hand. He was killed by a free negro

named George Lewis. The murdered man

was a member of the Presbyterian Church

of Clarksville. The Presbyterian Church

of Clarksville has contributed nearly $500

towards the construction of the Metropolitan

Church in the City of Washington.

HORRIBLE MURDER.—An extra from the

Sparta Times, dated the 21st, contains the following announcement:

"On the 19th of April, on the road leading

from the City of Sparta to Johnson's, on Cumberland Mountain, Cumberland county, Tenn.,

about five miles from Sparta, there was a

murder committed. The murdered man was

about 35 or 40 years of age; tall, thin, with

dark hair, and a high forehead. He was

wearing a blue coat, a white shirt, and

dark trousers. He was carrying a gun in

his hand. He was killed by a free negro

named George Lewis. The murdered man

MISSISSIPPI INTELLIGENCE.

DeSoto City.—A number of lots were sold recently in this new city, situated immediately opposite to Vicksburg. The purchasers were chiefly from Vicksburg. Another public sale will soon take place.

GEN. CHARLES G. NELMS, of DeSoto.—A correspondent of the Herald and Patriot suggests that this gentleman as a candidate for State Senator. This suggestion is only made upon the supposition that Col. SIMON OLIVER will not consent to be put in nomination for re-election.

MISSISSIPPI AND TENNESSEE RAILROAD.—

The Herald Press has in hand from quarters that by the 1st of September next, this road will be entirely completed to the town of Pa-noles. It will then receive a large number of cotton bales south of that river in the counties of Yalobusha, Tallahatchie and Carroll.

It is in support of J. A. CAMPBELL, Esq., of Kosciusko, for Congress, and also favors the rotary system as applied to office holders, in an article of considerable length.

GUBERNATORIAL.—The Democracy of Noxbury county, in a recent meeting, brought forward the name of Hon. JOSEPH KOGAN, as their choice for Governor. They also endorsed the course of the Hon. WILLIAM BANKHEAD.

MISSISSIPPI BAPTIST.—This is the name of a new paper the second number of which is before us. It is published at Jackson, by Messrs.

ELLIOTT and FREEMAN. The Baptist is a new large paper, and conducted with ability and industry. Price of subscription $2.50, in advance.

ATTORNEY GENERAL GLEN.—The Mississippi of the 24th, contains a letter from this gentleman, intended to express his determination not to be a candidate for re-nomination before the Democratic Convention. He says:

"My name will not, under any circumstances, be placed in nomination for the office of Attorney General, which I now hold. For more than a year, my attention has been frequently attracted by the subject."

UNANIMOUS CHOICE.—The Democrats in Simpsonton held a meeting on the 13th inst.,

and among other resolutions passed, one declaring that the unanimous choice for Congress was the late Hon. J. F. CHAMBERLAIN.

LAFAYETTE DEMOCRACY.—The Holy Springs

Herald learns that the Democracy of Lafayette held a meeting last week, at which delegates were appointed to the State and District Conventions. The delegates to the former were instructed to support the Hon. ROBERT S.

GASKIN for Governor, and the District delegates to cast their votes for J. F. CHAMBERLAIN for Congress. These gentlemen were chosen to represent the Democracy of Lafayette in the State and District Conventions. All these aspirants and their immediate backers are busily engaged in a secret and underhanded movement to kill Mr. CURRIE off. He stands prominently in their way, and they desire first to get rid of him, and then have a scrub race in the Convention among themselves."

CHURCH SPRINGS HERALD.—The work on this road is progressing rapidly. The splendid bridge over the Tallahatchie is now being erected, and the cars are running regularly to the river for many miles.

CAPT. A. M. JACKSON, OF TIPPAH.—The name of this gentleman has been placed at the head of the Ripley Advertiser, as a candidate for Congress, subject to the decision of the District Convention.

FIRE IN VICKSBURG.—The Vicksburg

Standard attributes the recent fire in that city, which was one of the most valuable buildings of the city destroyed, to the city authorities and calls upon the city authorities to redouble their exertions to detect and punish the guilty.

RECOUNT TO SENATOR BROWN.—The dinner